AMENDED AND RESTATED
BY-LAWS OF
CARTER'S, INC.
AS OF AUGUST 17, 2023

ARTICLE 1 - STOCKHOLDERS

1.1 Place of Meetings. All meetings of stockholders shall be held at such place, within or without the State of Delaware, or, if so determined by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion, at no place (but rather by means of remote communication), as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors, or, if not so designated, at the principal executive office of the corporation. The Board of Directors may postpone, reschedule or cancel at any time and for any reason any previously scheduled special or annual meeting of stockholders before or after the notice for such meeting has been sent to the stockholders.

1.2 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting shall be held at such date and time as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. If no annual meeting is held in accordance with the foregoing provisions, a special meeting may be held in lieu of the annual meeting, and any action taken at that special meeting shall have the same effect as if it had been taken at the annual meeting, and in such case, all references in these By-Laws to the annual meeting of stockholders shall be deemed to refer to such special meeting.

1.3 Special Meeting.

A A special meeting of stockholders of the corporation may be called at any time by (a) the Chairman of the Board of Directors, (b) the Chief Executive Officer (or, if there is no Chief Executive Officer, the President), or (c) by vote of a majority of the Board of Directors. Subject to the terms of any class or series of preferred stock of the corporation, and subject to the applicable provisions of this Section 1.3, the Secretary of the corporation shall call a special meeting upon the written request (the "Meeting Request") of the record holders owning in the aggregate more than 35.0% of the voting power of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such a meeting, delivered to the Secretary of the corporation. Upon determination of the time and date of the meeting, the Secretary shall cause a notice of meeting to be given to the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting in accordance with Section 1.4 of these By-Laws. In fixing a date and time for any special meeting requested by stockholders, the Board of Directors may consider such factors as it deems relevant, including without limitation, the nature of the matters to be considered, the facts and circumstances related to any request for a meeting, and any plan of the Board of Directors to call an annual meeting or special meeting.

B A stockholder may not submit a Meeting Request unless such stockholder is a holder of record of capital stock of the corporation on the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to request the call of a special meeting. Any stockholder seeking to cause the corporation to call a special meeting to transact business shall, by written notice to the Secretary of the corporation, request that the Board of Directors fix a record date. A written request to fix a record date shall include all of the information that must be included in a Meeting Request, as set forth in paragraph C of this Section 1.3. The Board of Directors may, within ten (10) days of the Secretary's receipt of a written request to fix a record date containing all the information required by or pursuant to this paragraph, fix a record date to determine the stockholders entitled to request the call of a special meeting, which date shall not precede, and shall not be more than ten (10) days after, the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted. If a record date is not so fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date shall be the date that the first Meeting Request is received by the Secretary with respect to the proposed business to be conducted at a special meeting.

C Any Meeting Request shall be signed by one or more stockholders, or their duly authorized agent, that request the special meeting and shall set forth: (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting (including any nominees for election or re-election as director, if applicable), the text of the proposal or business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and in the event that such business includes a proposal to amend these By-Laws, the language of the proposed amendment), the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting, and any material interest in such business of each signing stockholder; (b) the name and address of each signing stockholder and date of signature; (c) the number of shares of each class of voting shares owned of record and beneficially, directly or indirectly, by each such stockholder; (d) a description of all agreements, arrangements or understandings between any signing stockholder and any other person (including their names) regarding the meeting and the matters proposed to be acted on at the meeting; (e) all information relating to each signing stockholder that would be required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest (even if an election contest is not the subject of the Meeting Request) or would otherwise be required, in each case pursuant to Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and the rules and regulations thereunder (the "1934 Act"); and (f) all of the information that would be required by Section 1.12, in the case of one or more nominations, or Section 1.13, in the case of business other than nominations, and all updates and supplements to such information required by Section 1.14 of these By-Laws. A stockholder may revoke its request for a special meeting at any time by written revocation delivered to the Secretary. If, following such revocation, the remaining stockholders requesting a special meeting hold in the aggregate 35.0% or less of the voting power of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such a meeting, the Board of Directors shall have the discretion to determine whether or not to proceed with the special meeting, including whether to cancel the special meeting. Except as otherwise provided by law or these By-Laws, the chair of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any other business proposed to be brought before the stockholder-requested meeting was made or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 1.3. Notwithstanding anything in these By-Laws to the contrary, if the stockholder, any Stockholder Associated Person (as defined in Section 1.14) or any proposed nominee (as applicable) acts contrary to any representation, certification or agreement required by this this Section 1.3 (including any representation, certification or agreement required by Section 1.12 or 1.13, as applicable) or otherwise fails to comply with this Section 1.3 (or any law, rule or regulation identified in this Section 1.3, or Section 1.12 or Section 1.13, as applicable) or provides false or misleading information to the corporation, any such business proposal shall not be transacted and any such nomination(s) shall be disregarded (and any such nominee shall be disqualified from standing for election or re-election), notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the corporation. If none of the stockholders who submitted a Meeting Request (or a qualified representative (as defined in Section 1.14) thereof) appears at the stockholder-requested special meeting to present the business to be brought before such meeting (including any nominations for election or reelection as directors, if applicable) that were specified in the Meeting Request, the corporation need not present the business for a vote at the meeting (and any such nominee shall be disqualified from standing for election or re-election as a director). For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of paragraph A of Section 1.14 shall apply to any stockholder-requested special meeting called pursuant to this Section 1.3.

D The Board of Directors shall have the authority to determine not to call a special meeting requested by stockholders if (a) the Board of Directors has called or calls an annual or special meeting of stockholders to be held not more than ninety (90) days after the date the corporation receives Meeting Requests from the holders of the requisite percentage of capital stock (the "Request Delivery Date") and an identical or substantially similar item (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors) will be submitted for stockholder approval at such annual or special meeting (such an identical or substantially similar item, a "Similar Item"); (b) if a Similar Item has been presented at the most recent annual meeting or at any special meeting held within twelve (12) months prior to the Request Delivery Date; provided that, for purposes of this clause (b), the removal of directors and the filling of vacancies shall not be considered identical or substantially similar to the election of directors at the preceding annual meeting; (c) the Meeting Request relates to an item of business that is not a proper subject for stockholder action under applicable law; or (d) the Meeting Request was made in violation of Regulation 14A under the 1934 Act, to the extent applicable, or other applicable law.

E The Board of Directors shall fix the date and time of any stockholder-requested special meeting, and the date of such special meeting shall be no more than 90 days after the date on which the Board of Directors fixes the date of the special meeting. Business transacted at a stockholder-requested special meeting shall be limited to: (i) the business stated in the valid Meeting Request received from the holders of the requisite percentage of capital stock of the corporation; and (ii) any additional business that the Board of Directors determines to include in the corporation's notice of meeting.

1.4 Notice of Meetings. Except as otherwise provided by law, notice of each meeting of stockholders, whether annual or special, shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting as of the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting. The notices of all meetings shall state the place, if any, and the date of the meeting, the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting, the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, if such date is different from the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of the meeting, and the hour of the meeting. The notice of a special meeting shall state, in addition, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Notice of any meeting of stockholders shall be deemed given as provided in Section 232 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL"). An affidavit of the mailing or other means of giving any notice of any stockholders' meeting, executed by the secretary, assistant secretary or any transfer agent of the corporation giving the notice, shall be prima facie evidence of the giving of such notice or report.

1.5 Voting List. The corporation shall prepare, no later than the tenth (10th) day before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders of record entitled to vote at the meeting; provided, however, if the record date for determining the stockholders entitled to vote is less than ten (10) days before the meeting date, the list shall reflect the stockholders entitled to vote as of the tenth (10th) day before the meeting date, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Nothing contained in this Section shall require the corporation to include electronic mail addresses or other electronic contact information on such list. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, for a period of ten (10) days ending on the day before the meeting date: (a) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of the meeting, or (b) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the corporation. If the corporation determines to make the list available on an electronic network, the corporation may take reasonable steps to ensure that such information is available only to stockholders of the corporation.

1.6 Quorum. At each annual or special meeting of stockholders, except as otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of capital stock of the corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person, by means of remote communication, if authorized, or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A quorum, once established, shall not be broken by the subsequent withdrawal of enough votes to leave less than a quorum.

1.7 Adjournments. Any meeting of stockholders may be adjourned, whether or not a quorum is present, to any other time and to any other place (if any) by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the shares present or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote thereon, or by the chair of the meeting. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, including an adjournment taken to address a technical failure to convene or continue a meeting using remote communication, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place, if any, thereof, and the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, displayed during the time scheduled for the meeting on the same electronic network used to enable stockholders and proxy holders to participate in the meeting by means of remote communication, or set forth in the notice of such meeting given in accordance with, Section 1.4 of these By-Laws. If the adjournment is for more than thirty days, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. If after the adjournment a new record date for stockholders entitled to vote is fixed for the adjourned meeting, the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date for notice of such adjourned meeting in accordance with Section 213(a) of the DGCL, and shall give notice of the adjourned meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such adjourned meeting as of the record date fixed for notice of such adjourned meeting. At the adjourned meeting, the corporation may transact any business that might have been transacted at the original meeting.

1.8 Voting. Each stockholder shall have one vote for each share of capital stock entitled to vote and held of record by such stockholder, unless otherwise provided by the DGCL, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws.

1.9 Proxy Representation. Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder by proxy. No proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date unless such proxy provides for a longer period. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and, if, and only as long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A proxy may be made irrevocable regardless of whether the interest with which it is coupled is an interest in the stock itself or an interest in the corporation generally. The authorization of a proxy may but need not be limited to specified action; provided, however, that if a proxy limits its authorization to a meeting or meetings of stockholders, unless otherwise specifically provided such proxy shall entitle the holder thereof to vote at any adjourned session but shall not be valid after the final adjournment thereof.

Any stockholder directly or indirectly soliciting proxies from other stockholders must use a proxy card color other than white, which shall be reserved for the exclusive use by the Board of Directors.

1.10 Inspectors at Meetings of Stockholders. The corporation, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, may, and shall if required by law, appoint one or more inspectors, who may be employees of the corporation, to act at the meeting or any adjournment thereof and make a written report thereof. The corporation may designate one or more persons as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector or alternate is able to act at a meeting, the chair of the meeting shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability. The inspectors shall (a) ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, (b) determine the shares represented at the meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots, (c) count all votes and ballots, (d) determine and retain for a reasonable period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors and (e) certify their determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting and their count of all votes and ballots. The inspectors may appoint or retain other persons or entities to assist the inspectors in the performance of their duties. The date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be announced at the meeting. No ballot, proxies, votes or any revocation thereof or change thereto, shall be accepted by the inspectors after the closing of the polls unless the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware upon application by a stockholder shall determine otherwise. In determining the validity and counting of proxies and ballots cast at any meeting of stockholders, the inspectors may consider such information as is permitted by applicable law. No person who is a candidate for office at an election may serve as an inspector at such election.

1.11 Action at Meeting. When a quorum is present at any meeting, a nominee for director shall be elected if the number of votes properly cast “for” such nominee’s election exceeds the number of votes properly cast “against” such nominee’s election; provided that, if with respect to any meeting, the number of persons nominated for election to the Board of Directors of the corporation at such meeting exceeds the number of directors to be elected at such meeting and (i) the Secretary of the corporation receives a notice that a stockholder has nominated a person for election to the Board of Directors (x) in accordance with Section 1.12, or (y) with respect to stockholder-requested special meetings only, in accordance with Section 1.3; and (ii) such nomination has not been withdrawn by such stockholder on or prior to the tenth (10th) day preceding the date the corporation first distributes its notice of meeting for such meeting to the stockholders, the directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes properly cast at such meeting. All matters, other than the election of directors, shall be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes properly cast affirmatively or negatively, except when a larger vote is required by law, by the Certificate of Incorporation, by these By-Laws or by the rules or regulations of the New York Stock Exchange, or any other stock exchange applicable to the corporation.

1.12 Nomination of Directors.

A Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock of the corporation, only persons who are nominated in accordance with the following procedures shall be eligible for election as directors. The nomination for election to the Board of Directors of the corporation at a meeting of stockholders may be made only (a) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, (b) by any stockholder of the corporation who was a stockholder of record of the corporation at the time the notice provided for in this Section 1.12 is delivered to the Secretary of the corporation and at the time of the meeting, who is entitled to vote in the election of directors at the meeting and who timely complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 1.12 and with all applicable laws, rules and regulations in connection with the matters set forth in this Section 1.12 or (c) in the case of a stockholder-requested special meeting, by any stockholder pursuant to Section 1.3 of these By-Laws. For the avoidance of doubt, clauses (b) and (c) of the preceding sentence shall be the exclusive means for a stockholder to submit nominations for election to the Board of Directors before an annual or special meeting of stockholders; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of these By-Laws, in the case of a stockholder-requested special meeting called pursuant to Section 1.3 of these By-Laws, no stockholder may nominate a person for election to the Board of Directors or propose any other business to be considered at the meeting, except pursuant to the Meeting Request(s) delivered for such special meeting pursuant to paragraph B of Section 1.3 of these By-Laws.

B To be timely, a stockholder’s notice must be received by the Secretary of the corporation at the principal executive offices of the corporation (a) in the case of an annual meeting, not later than the close of business on the ninetieth (90th) day, nor earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth (120th) day, prior to the first anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders, or (b) in the case of a special meeting at which directors are to be elected, not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the date on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the corporation; provided, however, that, in the case of an annual meeting, if the annual meeting is not held within thirty (30) days before or after such anniversary date, or if no annual meeting was held in the preceding year, then for the notice by the stockholder to be timely it must be so received not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth day (120th) day before such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth (90th) day before such annual meeting or the tenth (10th) day following the date on which the public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the corporation. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment, recess, continuation, rescheduling, or postponement (or the public announcement thereof) of an annual meeting for which notice has been given or for which a public announcement of the date of such meeting has already been made by the corporation or of a special meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 1.12 to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the of the Board of Directors of the corporation at an annual meeting is increased and there is no public announcement naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the corporation at least ten (10) days before the last day a stockholder may deliver a notice of nomination in accordance with this Section 1.12, a stockholder's notice required by this Section 1.12 shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the corporation. The number of nominees a stockholder may nominate for election at a stockholder meeting on its own behalf (or in the case of a stockholder giving the notice on behalf of a beneficial owner, the number of nominees a stockholder may nominate for election at a stockholder meeting on behalf of such beneficial owner) shall not exceed the number of directors to be elected by stockholders generally at such stockholder meeting.

C To be in proper form, a stockholder's notice to the Secretary must set forth:

(a) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director (a "Proposed Nominee"):

(i) the name, age, business address and, if known, residence address and principal occupation or employment of each such Proposed Nominee, and the name and address of any Proposed Nominee Associated Person,

(v) all other information relating to any Proposed Nominee, any Proposed Nominee Associated Person, the stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person that would be required to be disclosed in filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the stockholder pursuant to Regulation 14A under the 1934 Act, including such Proposed Nominee's written consent to be named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected,

(vi) a written representation that the Proposed Nominee is not and will not become party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding with, and has not given any commitment or assurance to, any person or entity as to how the Proposed Nominee, if elected as a director of the corporation, will act or vote on any issue or question that has not been disclosed to the corporation or that could interfere with such Proposed Nominee's ability to comply, if elected as a director, with such Proposed Nominee's fiduciary duties under applicable law,

(vii) a written representation that the Proposed Nominee is not and will not become a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any person or entity other than the corporation with respect to any direct or indirect compensation, reimbursement or indemnification in connection with service or action as a nominee or director that has not been disclosed to the corporation,

(x) a written representation that the Proposed Nominee currently intends to serve for the full term for which he or she is standing for election, and

(xi) an agreement to promptly provide such additional information as the corporation may reasonably request (and in any event within five business days after such request),

(b) a representation whether the stockholder, any Stockholder Associated Person or any other participant (as defined in Item 4 of Schedule 14A under the 1934 Act) will engage in a solicitation with respect to such nomination and, if so, the name of each participant in such solicitation and the amount of the cost of solicitation that has been and will be borne, directly or indirectly, by each participant in such solicitation and a representation as to whether the stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person intends or is part of a group that intends to (i) solicit proxies in support of any Proposed Nominee in accordance with Rule 14a-19 promulgated under the 1934 Act and/or (ii) otherwise to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of any Proposed Nominee, and

(c) as to the stockholder giving the notice and any Stockholder Associated Person, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is being made:

(i) (i) the class, series, number, principal amount, and the date of acquisition, as applicable, of all securities of the corporation which are owned of record by such stockholder or by any such Stockholder Associated Person as of the date of the notice,

(ii) (ii) the class, series, number and principal amount, and the date of acquisition, as applicable, of, and the nominee holder for, all securities of the corporation owned beneficially, directly or indirectly, but not of record by such stockholder or by any such Stockholder Associated Person as of the date of the notice,

The regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and place (if any), either within or without the State of Delaware, as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; provided, that any director who is absent when such a determination is made shall be given notice of the determination. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors may be held without notice immediately after and at the same place as the annual meeting of stockholders.
- 2.8 Special Meetings. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors and subject to the provisions of the DGCL, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers that may require it. Each such committee shall keep minutes and make such reports as the Board of Directors may from time to time request. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise determine, any committee may adopt a charter and make rules for the conduct of its business, but unless otherwise provided by the directors or in such charter or rules, its business shall be conducted as nearly as possible in the same manner as is provided in these By-Laws for the Board of Directors.

2.15 Compensation of Directors. In addition, the Treasurer shall perform such duties and have such powers as are incident to the office of Treasurer, including without limitation the duty and power to keep and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation, to deposit funds of the corporation in depositories designated from time to time by the Board of Directors, to disburse such funds as ordered by the Board of Directors, to make proper accounts of such funds, and to render as required by the Board of Directors statements of all such transactions and of the financial condition of the corporation. Unless the Board of Directors has designated another officer as Chief Financial Officer, the Treasurer shall be the Chief Financial Officer of the corporation.

The Assistant Treasurers shall perform such duties and possess such powers as the Board of Directors, the President or the Treasurer may from time to time prescribe. In the event of the absence, inability or refusal to act of the Treasurer, the Assistant Treasurer (or if there shall be more than one, the Assistant Treasurers in the order determined by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Treasurer.

3.11 Duties of Officers May be Delegated. In case any officer is absent, or for any other reason that the Board of Directors may deem sufficient, the Chief Executive Officer or the Board of Directors may delegate for the time being the powers or duties of such officer to any other officer or to any director.

3.12 Salaries. Officers of the corporation shall be entitled to such salaries, compensation or reimbursement as shall be fixed or allowed from time to time by or in the manner designated by the Board of Directors or a committee thereof.

ARTICLE 4 - CAPITAL STOCK

4.1 Certificates of Stock. Every holder of stock of the corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate, in such form as may be prescribed by law and by the Board of Directors, certifying the number and class of shares owned in the corporation. Each such certificate shall be signed by, or in the name of the corporation by any two authorized officers of the corporation, including, without limitation, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, if any, the Vice Chairman, of the Board of Directors, if any, the President, a Vice President, the Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer, the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the certificate may be a facsimile.

Each certificate for shares of stock that are subject to any restriction on transfer pursuant to the Certificate of Incorporation, the By-Laws, applicable securities laws or any agreement among any number of stockholders or among such holders and the corporation shall have conspicuously noted on the face or back of the certificate either the full text of the restriction or a statement of the existence of such restriction.

4.2 Transfers. Except as otherwise established by rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Directors, and subject to applicable law, shares of stock may be transferred on the books of the corporation by the surrender to the corporation or its transfer agent of the certificate representing such shares properly endorsed or accompanied by a written assignment or power of attorney properly executed, and with such proof of authority or the authenticity of signature as the corporation or its transfer agent may reasonably require. Except as may be otherwise required by law, by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these By-Laws, the corporation shall be entitled to treat the record holder of stock as shown on its books as the owner of such stock for all purposes, including the payment of dividends and the right to vote with respect to such stock, regardless of any transfer, pledge or other disposition of such stock, until the shares have been transferred on the books of the corporation in accordance with the requirements of these By-Laws.

4.3 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. The corporation may issue a new certificate of stock in place of any previously issued certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, and the corporation may require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or such owner's legal representative to give the corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate or uncertificated shares.

4.4 Record Date. The Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as a record date for the determination of the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders (or any adjournment thereof), or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action. Such record date shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action to which such record date relates.

If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day before the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day before the day on which the meeting is held. If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating to such purpose.

A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

ARTICLE 5 - RECORDS AND REPORTS

5.1 Maintenance of Records. The corporation shall, either at its principal executive office or at such place or places as designated by the Board of Directors, keep a record of its stockholders listing their names and addresses and the number and class of shares held by each stockholder, a copy of these By-Laws as amended to date, accounting books and other records.

5.2 Inspection by Director. Any director shall have the right to examine the corporation's stock ledger, a list of its stockholders and its other books and records for a purpose reasonably related to his or her position as a director. The Court of Chancery is hereby vested with the exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether a director is entitled to the inspection sought. The Court may summarily order the corporation to permit the director to inspect any and all books and records, the stock ledger, and the stock list and to make copies or extracts therefrom. The Court may, in its discretion, prescribe any limitations or conditions with reference to the inspection, or award such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

5.3 Representation of Shares of Other Corporations. The President or the Secretary, or any other officer of this corporation authorized by the Board of Directors is authorized to vote, represent, and exercise on behalf of this corporation all rights incident to any and all shares, interests or securities of any other corporation or entity standing in the name of this corporation. The authority herein granted may be exercised either by such person directly or by any other person authorized to do so by proxy or power of attorney duly executed by such person having the authority.

ARTICLE 6 - GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Fiscal Year. Except as from time to time otherwise designated by the Board of Directors, the fiscal year of the corporation shall end on the Saturday in December or January nearest the last day of December in each year and the new fiscal year shall begin on the Sunday thereafter.

6.2 Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

6.3 Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given by law, by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these By-Laws, a waiver of such notice either in writing signed by the person entitled to such notice or such person's duly authorized attorney, or by electronic transmission, whether before, at or after the time stated in such waiver, or the appearance of such person or persons at such meeting in person, by means of remote communications, if authorized, or by proxy shall be deemed equivalent to such notice. Where such an appearance is made for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting has not been lawfully called or convened, the appearance shall not be deemed equivalent to notice.

6.4 Exclusive Forum. Unless the corporation consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the corporation, (ii) any action asserting a claim for breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation to the corporation or the corporation's stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine, in each case subject to said Court of Chancery having personal jurisdiction over the indispensable parties named as defendants therein.

6.5 Checks; Drafts; Evidences of Indebtedness. From time to time, the Board of Directors or an officer or officers authorized by the Board of Directors shall determine which officer, officers, person or persons may sign or endorse all checks, drafts, other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness that are issued in the name of or payable to the corporation, and only the persons so authorized shall sign or endorse those instruments.

6.6 Corporate Contracts and Instruments; How Executed. The Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation; such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized or ratified by the Board of Directors or within the agency power of an officer, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or for any amount.

6.7 Evidence of Authority. A certificate by the Secretary, any Assistant Secretary, or any temporary secretary, as to any action taken by the stockholders, the Board of Directors, a committee of the Board of Directors, or any officer or representative of the corporation shall, as to all persons who rely on the certificate in good faith, be conclusive evidence of such action.

6.8 Certificate of Incorporation. All references in these By-Laws to the Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to the Certificate of Incorporation of the corporation, as amended or restated and in effect from time to time.

6.9 Transactions with Interested Parties. No contract or transaction between the corporation and one or more of the directors or officers, or between the corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association, or other organization in which one or more of the directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors that authorizes the contract or transaction or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose, if:

A The material facts as to his or her relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee of the Board of Directors in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum;

B The material facts as to his or her relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or

C The contract or transaction is fair as to the corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified by the Board of Directors, a committee of the Board of Directors, or the stockholders.

Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee that authorizes the contract or transaction.

6.10 Construction; Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions in the DGCL shall govern the construction of these By-Laws. Without limiting the generality of this provision, (a) the singular number includes the plural, and the plural number includes the singular; (b) the term "person" includes a corporation, a partnership, an entity and a natural person; and (c) all pronouns include the masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the person or persons may require.

6.11 Provisions Additional to Provisions of Law. All restrictions, limitations, requirements and other provisions of these By-Laws shall be construed, insofar as possible, as supplemental and additional to all provisions of law applicable to the subject matter thereof and shall be fully complied with in addition to the said provisions of law unless such compliance shall be illegal.

6.12 Provisions Contrary to Provisions of Law; Severability. Any article, section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause or phrase of these By-Laws that, upon being construed in the manner provided in Section 6.10 hereof, shall be contrary to or inconsistent with any applicable provisions of law, shall not apply so long as said provisions of law shall remain in effect, but such result shall not affect the validity or applicability of any other portions of these By-Laws, it being hereby declared that these By-Laws and each article, section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, would have been adopted irrespective of the fact that any one or more articles, sections, subsections, subdivisions, sentences, clauses or phrases is or are illegal.

6.13 Notices. Except as otherwise provided by Section 232 of the DGCL, any reference in these By-Laws to the time a notice is given or sent means, unless otherwise expressly provided, the time a written notice by mail is deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid; or the time any other written notice is personally delivered to the recipient or is delivered to a common carrier for transmission, or actually transmitted by the person giving the notice by electronic means, to the recipient; or the time any oral notice is communicated, in person or by telephone or wireless, to the recipient or to a person at the office of the recipient who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the recipient.

ARTICLE 7 - AMENDMENTS

Subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, these By-Laws may be adopted, amended or repealed at any annual or special meeting of stockholders, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat. Subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, these By-Laws may also be altered, amended or repealed, and new By-Laws adopted, by the Board of Directors, acting by majority vote of the entire Board, subject to the right of the stockholders to adopt, amend or repeal the By-Laws as provided above.
